

Clinical Observation at Stanford University

Ryota Takahashi

Mari Matsunuma

Stanford University

- High-class residential area
- No. 3 in the Best Medical Schools
- No. 6 in the Best Pediatrics Programs

Google Map

Huge campus!!!!

Lucile Salter Packard Children's Hospital ;LPCH

- 461-bed
- Dedicated to Pediatric and obstetric care
- Admission : 13800/year
- CVICU=cardiovascular ICU :36-bed
- Heart transplantation(children) :25-35 cases/ year

Lucile Salter Packard Children's Hospital
Stanford

Outside LPCH

Why we chose this program?

To be a cardiovascular surgeon

To observe a children's hospital in America

To practice in America in the future

To broaden knowledge in Pediatric Cardiology

- Overview
- March 5th ~15th, 2019
 - Lucile Salter Packard Children's Hospital (=LPCH)
 - About children's heart surgery and CVICU

Schedule

	6:30-	7:00	7:30	8:00-	8:30-	16:00
Mon				Surgical round	Research Workshop
Tue			Lecture		CV ICU round/ Operation
Wed	Conference
Thu			Lecture
Fri				Surgical round
Sat				Surgical round

Fontan operation,

Fontan operation,
pulmonary artery reconstruction,
VSD closing...

CVICU round; 8:30-12:00

Any question for us?

doctor

Pharmacist

Physician
Assistant(PA)

15-20 minutes/patient

patient's family

Nurse Practitioner(NP)

patient

Clinical Nurse

simultaneous heart-liver transplantation

We observed it on the last day, March 15th , 2019!!

Good foods

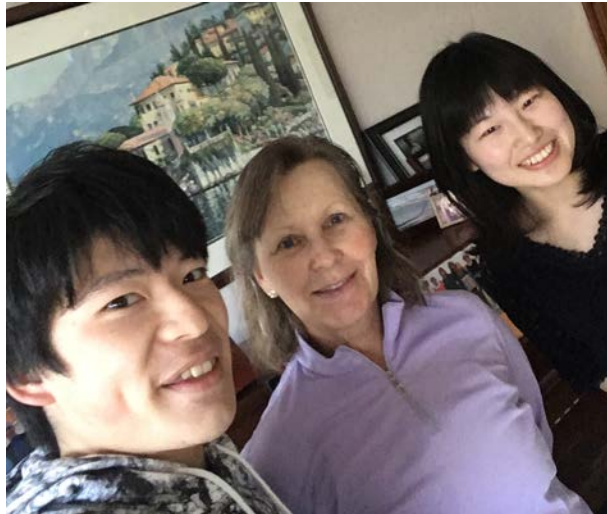

Sightseeing:

enjoy San Francisco

Acknowledgment

- We appreciate Dr. Katsuhide Maeda, Dr. Michael Mar, Ms. Ami Ishii and all the staffs concerned for organizing this program.
- We also thank Ms. Robin, who shared her rooms with us.
- This program was financially supported by Gusinkai & Kouenkai.

Thank you for listening!

